Tillou Von Nunes Wanted to "Rough House" It With Recorder on Atlanta Bench.

Anderson people remember very well the law firm of Sims and Von Nunes when it flourished in Spartanburg. Both C. P. Sims and Tiliou von Nunes used to come to Auderson to practice and they had frequent tilts with the Anderson attorneys. Lotal people will therefore read with interest the following clipping from the Atlanta Georgian of yesterday in which the further adventures of Tilwhich the further adventures of Til-lou von Nunes are described:

A red hot battle of words between Judge Andy Calhoun and Attorney Tillou von Nunes, in which Judge Calhoun threatened to have the lawyer locked up if he didn't "sit down and shut up," stirred Tuesday's session of the criminal division of the city court.

The row developed during the trial of D. W. Hawk, a negro, charged with stealing a bicycle, whom von Nunes represented. The attorney objected to the action of several policemen, who volunteered information regard-ing Hawk's previous criminal record.

"Your honor ought not to allow these policemen, to make these statements," said Von Nunes. "They're not interested in this case. Every time I present a case to this court some officer who is not concerned jumps up and says something about my client's character." my client's character."
"I ruled it out," said Judge Cal-

"I know it," replied the lawyer, "but your honor ought to sit down on these men and stop this practice. They are continually putting the character of the defendant in issue when his character has nothing to do with the case.

"I told you I ruled it out," said the Judge: Calhoun then sentenced liawk to eight mouths in the chain-gang, incidentally telling the negro that he seemed to have a habit of stealing everything he could get his hands on. Von Nunes walked up to the bench and repeated his remark about sitting down on the policemen, and Judge Calhoun shook a warning

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Wall Street temporarily abandoned its interest in international affairs today to consid-or the outcome of the elections. With the stock market still under closure, there was no way of measuring the significance of the overturn in terms of security values, but conservative opinion inclined to the belief that under normal conditions the market would flave responded with a vigorous upturn of prices.

On the other hand, it was regarded as a deparable question whether these he stock market still under closure

On the other hand, it was regarded as a debatable question whether these political conditions would not have been largely neutralized by the latest victories of the German navy. These were accompanied by another sharp rise in trans-Atlantic rates, which war risks on ships plying between North and South American ports were virtually prohibitive, according to resports.

word reached Anderson yesterday from McCoy's gin to the effect that Roy McCoy, the 16-year-old son of J. B. McCoy, had his right arm torn off near the shoulder Tuesday afternoon. It appears that the young man was at work in his father's gin at the time of the accident. The gin got choked and the young man ran his right arm down into the machinery to straighten out the tangle, where upon the member was horribly cut and torn by the teeth of the apparabut when the physicians arrived they at once found that nothing could be done to save the arm and that immediate amputation was necessary.

It was said last night that the young man was getting along as well as could be expected and had rallied from the shock, which he endured with much fortitude.

More Cases

Another Warrant Was Served on Claude Breazeale Yesterday, Charging Him With Selling.

And still they come. The detectives chagged in working up liquor cases in Anderson are growing more and more active and last night a second warrant was served on Claude Breazeale, charging him with selling liquor. This is the second charge against him and he is out on $400 bond.

he is out on $400 bond.

Persistent reports were heard on the streets yesterday that Marion Eskew, who is also under and of $400 on a charge of selling, has done like Myers and skipped the town but whether this is true or not will not be definitely known until this morning.

The city officials announced yesterday that the cases against Breazeale and Eskew will be called for trial at 9:30 o'clock this morning, while the remainder of the cases will go over until a later date.

floor of the Pepper building. Everything pointed to the place having at one time been a club but nothing indicated that selling had been going on there within the last few days. There was no beer nor was there any whiskey, but about five or six barrels were found, containing empty beer bottles.
The barrels, together with the lockers, chairs, tables and other furniture, went to the city hall where it joined

Anderson Man At

Spartanburg Fair. Leroy Gilliard left yesterday morn ing on one of the special trains from this city, going to Spartanburg for the annual Spartanburg county fair. Mr. Gilliard is an expert in the judg-ing of horses and cattle and will be of much help to the Spartanburg peo-ple in deciding the various contests. He will probably return to the city Friday.

ocals Play Game Tomerrow. aut.

The Anderson High School football leven will leave Anderson tomorrow for Spartanburg, where they will play tomorrow afternoon against the Wof-ford Fitting school team. The ccunity fair is now in progress at Spartan-burg and it is probable that a large crowd will be attracted to the game Wofford defeated Anderson when the two teams played at Buena Vista Park some weeks ago, and while the local team hardly hopes to win tomorrow, they intend to hold their own.

Mr. Driskell is Made Manager. Sloan Driskell, who has ben employ ed in the local store of the United States Woollen Mills Company in Anderson for some months, received no-tification yesterday from the home of-fice of the company to the effect that he had been promoted to the position of manager of the Anderson store. Theo. Jones has been in charge of this store, but he has gone to Green-ville and this left the local position open. Mr. Driskell is a young man of decided ability and he will make a suc-cess in the Anderson management.

Trying to Secure Excellent Music. The people inter the program for the community fair, to be held with the Mountain Creek school one week from next Friday, be-gan negotiations yesterday with the Jolly Band, in an effort to secure that John Sand, in an effort to secure that excellent aggregation of musicians for the fair. The community fair is to be one of the biggest events of its kind ever attempted in Anderson county and it it is not a success it will not be the fault of the people behind the educational work in this county. The people of the Mountain Creek section and evincing a very lively interest in and evincing a very lively interest in people of the Mountain Creek section are evincing a very lively interest in the plans and preparations for the event and will do everything in their power to make the day a success.

With Good Dinner.

The local post of the Salvation Army yesterday distributed a number of pretty little boxes around the city, placing one in each of the business houses. These boxes bear a placard, asking that the people of the city help to buy a good Christmas dinner for the poor of the city. Many a nickel, dime and quarter went into the little boxes yesterday and if Anderson peo ple are really as big hearted as they are said to be, all of the boxes will be filled before Christmas day rolls around. The Salvation Army points out that every business man in the city can spare half a dollar between this date and Christmas and never miss it, yet this will buy two splendid din-ners for the poor people. This is a cause in which all should be willing to join, says Ensign Belcher.

Clever Negro Is

Still Free Man. Following his getaway from Anderson, after working a clever swindling game on Lee Davis, the head waiter at the Chiquola hotel, the negro theif at the Chiquola hotel, the negro their badly wanted in this city, journeyed over to Greenwood and is still at large in that city. When the negro worked his game of changing diamond rings in this city Tuesday, he lit out for Greenwood and the local police tele-phoned to the Greenwood officials to be on the watch for him. Early yes-terday morning the negro presented terday morning the negro presented himself at the railway station to get his baggage and when he did so the station agent turned in a call for the police. The negro chanced to look be hind him and when the officer was in less than 10 feet away, and before the policeman could seize him the swindler made a getawey. It is said that a search of his baggage revealed a number of other rings, all "phony" as was the one he disposed of in An-

Medical Society Met Yesterday.

The Anderson medical Society held its regular monthly meeting yesterday at 12 o'clock in the rooms of the An-derson chamber of commerce. This was easily the best meeting the medi cal society has held this year and all of the papers were of more than ord-inarliy delivered and all the physicians present got valuable ideas and sug gestions from the discourses which they heard. Many plans are being made by local physicians to attend the district convention of the State association.

Play Basket Ball

Here Next Friday..

A game of basketball to be played between the girls team of the Anderson High School and a similar aggregation from the Belton High School will be staged on the field at the West Market street school next Friday afternoon About one week tree. moon. About one week ago Anderson went to Belton and the local girls were defeated but this is easily accounted for by i.sck of practice and the fact that the locals were on a strange field. It is confidently pre-dicted that Anderson will have an easy time in winning Friday from the visiting team.

Both Cases

Both Cases
Were Settled.
Some interest surrounded two cases slated for trial in Magistrate Broadwell's court yesterday, but both these were settled by compromise. G. L. Tench had indicted W. M. Welborn for assault and battery and a similar indictment had been secured by Mr. Welborn for Mr. Tench. It had been expected that the hearing would be decidedly interesting but before the case was reached by the Magistrate, attorners announced that a compromise neys announced that a compromise had been effected and that the case would not be called for trial Juries had beer drawn and everything was in readliess for the trials to begin when this announcement was made.

Real Estale.

The Bank of Anderson, as trustee, yesterday sold to Elias McGee #36 acres of Anderson county land. It is understood that the price paid was #40 per acre or a total of £17,000 for the tract. This is the land over which several cases have been tried in court between Mrs. Laura Hard and Rev. J. D. Crout and Anderson seeple have followed it with interest.
